- (b) The amendments, if any, in the Development Control Regulations
- (c) The approximate cost, if any, involved in the acquisition of the land, which by virtue of the variation would be reserved for a public purpose, along with a notice, inviting suggestions and the objections from any person with respect to the variation within a period of two months from the date of publication of the variation.

- (2) After considering suggestions and objections, if any, received under this Rule, within the period specified therein and after considering the Planning Authority in a case where the variation is not proposed by the Planning Authority, the State Government by notification, sanction the variation with or without modifications as it may consider fit to do and such variation shall come into force on such date as may be specified in the notification.

- (3) From the date of coming into force, the variation, the provisions of the Act and the Rules shall apply to such variation, as they apply to an approved Development Plan.
 - (4) If any person is affected by such variation has incurred any expenditure in complying with the approved Development Plan as it existed before such variation such person shall be entitled to receive compensation,
 - (i) where the variation is made on the proposal of the Planning Authority, from that Authority
 - (ii) In any other case, from the State Government, if such expenditure is rendered abortive by reason of the variation of the Development Plan.
37. Revision of Approved Development Plan. – At least once in ten years from the date on which an approved Development Plan comes into force, the Planning Authority shall revise the Development Plan after carrying out, if necessary, a fresh survey and the provisions of the Act, shall so far as may be, apply to such revision.

CHAPTER-VI

CONTROL OF DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF LAND

38. Use and Development of Land to be in conformity with Development Plan. (Section 30 of the Act) -After the coming into operation of any Development Plan in any area, no person shall use or permit to be used any land or carry out any development in that area otherwise than in conformity with such Development Plan;
Provided that the Planning Authority may allow the continuance for a period not exceeding 10 years, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the Development Control Regulations made in this behalf, of the use of any land for the purpose for and to which it is being used on the date on which such Development Plan came into operation.
39. Prohibition of Development without payment of development charges and without permission. (Section 31 of the Act) -(1)After the application of this Act to any area and subject to the provisions relating to development charges and other provisions of this Act, no development or change of use of any land shall be undertaken or carried out in that area :-
 - (a) without obtaining a certificate from the Planning Authority certifying that the development charge as levied; and
 - (b) without obtaining the permission in writing as provided for in Sub Section(2)(2) Provided that no such permission shall be necessary –

- (ii) for the carrying out of any work in compliance with any order or direction made by any authority under any law for the time being in force;
 - (iii) for the carrying out of any works by any authority in exercise of its powers under any law for the time being in force;
 - (iv) for the carrying out by the Central or the State Government or any Local Authority of any works required for the maintenance or improvement of a highway, road or public street, being works carried out on land within the boundaries of such highway, road or public street;
 - (v) for the carrying out by the Central or the State Government or any Local Authority of any work for the purpose of inspecting, repairing or renewing any drains, sewers, mains, pipes, cables, telephone or other apparatus or the breaking open of any street or other land for such purpose;
 - (vi) for any excavation (including wells) made in the ordinary course of an agricultural operation;
 - (vii) for the construction of a road intended to give access to land solely for agricultural purposes;
 - (viii) for the normal use of land which has been used temporarily for other purposes;
 - (ix) in case of land, normally used for one purpose and occasionally used for any other purpose, for the use of land for that other purpose on occasions;
 - (x) for use, for any purpose incidental to the use of a building for human habitation or any other building or land attached to such building.
- (3) The Planning Authority on receipt of application in Form-C shall within three months grant permission, refuse to grant permission or grant permission with such conditions or modifications as it thinks fit in Form-D.

40. Permission for Development in Peripheral Area. (Section 32 of the Act) -Any person intending to carry out any development on any land and building in an area declared as a Peripheral Area to a Planning Area shall make an application in writing to the Planning Authority for permission in Form-C and containing such particulars and accompanying such documents and fees as prescribed in Form-C.

Provided that, such permission will be given, only if proposed development can be integrated with the land use nature of the Planning Area in the manner prescribed in these Rules.

41. Permission for Development. (Section 33 of the Act) -(1) After notification of the Development Plan every land use, every institution of use, change in land use, every building operation and every development in the Planning Area shall conform to the Development Plan.

- (2) Any person or body(excluding a department of Central or State Government or Local Authority) intending to carry out any development on any land in conformity with the Development Plan shall make an application in writing to Planning Authority for permission in Form-C containing such documents and Plans as prescribed in Form-C.

- (3) On such application having been duly made and on payment of the development charge and other fees levied under this Act or Rules or Regulations made there-under:
- (a) The Planning Authority shall pass orders within thirty days :
 - (i) granting permission unconditionally; or
 - (ii) granting permission subject to condition as it may think fit; or
 - (iii) refusing permission
 - (b) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing clause the Planning Authority may impose conditions –
 - (i) to the effect that the permission granted is only for a limited period and that after the expiry of that period the land shall be restored to the previous condition or the use of land permitted shall be discontinued.
 - (ii) for regulating the development or use of any other land under the control of applicant or for the carrying out of works on any such land as may appear to the Planning Authority expedient for the purpose of permitted development.
- (4) Every order of permission, refusal of permission or permission with conditions shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the applicant as prescribed in Form-D.
- (5) The development permission order may among other conditions contain the relevant provisions of Development Plan, requirement for road and other communication network system and the area of land affected by and to be surrendered to the Planning Authority which may be entitled and reckoned for computation of Transferable Development Right in the manner prescribed in the Development Control Regulations.
- (6) In case of a department of Central or State Government or Local Authority (where Local Authority is not also the Planning Authority) intending to carry out any development other than Operational Constructions on any land the concerned department or the authority as the case may be shall notify in writing to the Planning Authority of its intention to do so giving full particulars thereof and accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, at least one month prior to the undertaking of such development. Where the Planning Authority has raised any objection in respect of the conformity of the proposed development either to Development Plan or to any of the building bye-laws in force at the time or due to any other material consideration, the department or Local Authority, as the case may be, shall –
- (a) either make necessary modifications in the proposal for development to meet the objection raised by the Planning Authority, or
 - (b) submit the proposals for development together with objections raised by the Planning Authority to the Government for decision. When such proposals and objections have been submitted to the Government, no development shall be undertaken until the Government has finally decided the matter.

The Government on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections raised by the Planning Authority, shall in consultation with the Town and Country Planning Organization either approve the proposals with or without the modifications or direct the concerned departments or Local Authority as the case may be to make such modification as considered necessary.

42. Appeal against grant of development permission subject to conditions or refusal of development permission. (Section 34 of the Act) -(1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order passed under Section-31, Section-32 and Section-33, may appeal to the Tribunal constituted under this Act.

(2) After hearing the appellant and the Planning Authority, the Tribunal may pass an order dismissing the appeal or accepting the appeal by –

- (a) granting permission unconditionally; or
- (b) granting permission subject to such condition as it may think fit; or
- (c) removing the conditions subject to which permission has been granted; and imposing other conditions, if any, as it may think fit.

43. Lapse of Permission. (Section 35 of the Act) -Every permission granted under Section-31, Section-32 and Section-33 shall remain enforced for a period of two (2) years from the date of such grant and there after it shall lapse.

Provided that the Planning Authority may, on an application made to it, from time to time, extend such period by not more than six months at a time, but the extended period shall in no case exceed three (3) years in aggregate;

Provided further that the lapse of permission as aforesaid shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

44. Revocation of permission. (Section 36 of the Act) -The Planning Authority may revoke any development permission issued under Section-31, Section-32 and Section-33 whenever it is found that it was obtained by making any false statement or misrepresentation or suppression of any material fact.

45. Power of Revocation and Modification of Permission for Development. (Section 37 of the Act) -(1) If at any time it appears to the Planning Authority that it is necessary or expedient, having regard to the Development Plan that may have been prepared or may be under preparation, or to be prepared, and also having regard to any variation made in the Development Plan and to any other material consideration, that any permission to develop land or building granted under this Act or any other law, should be revoked or modified, the Planning Authority may, by a notice, after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard, by an order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to be necessary;

Provided that where permission relates to change of use of land or any building operation or other operation, no such order shall be passed after the change has taken place.

(2) When any permission is revoked or modified by an order made under Sub-Section (1), and any owner claims compensation from the Planning Authority within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the order of the Planning Authority, for the expenditure incurred in carrying out any development after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission, which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Planning Authority shall, after giving the owner reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess and offer such compensation to the owner as it thinks fit.

- (3) If the owner does not accept the compensation and within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the order from the Planning Authority shall give a notice of his refusal to accept the compensation, the Planning Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication to the Tribunal constituted under Chapter-XII of the Act as and the decision of the Tribunal shall be final and binding on the owner and the Planning Authority.

46. Deviation During Development or Undertaking of Layout Works and Unauthorized Development or Construction. (Section 38 of the Act) -(1) If during the execution of any development works, layout works, and civil works any deviation or departure is to be made from the development permission order granted, the owner shall obtain revised sanction as per the procedure laid down in Section-33.

- (2) Where a development or construction is found to have been undertaken by an owner, builder or developer without approval, without obtaining a development permission order, or in violation of the Development Plan, Zonal Development Plan or an Area Development Scheme or any rule, regulation or order, the Planning Authority or the Local Authority on its own or on advice of the Planning Authority concerned shall take immediate necessary steps against the said unauthorized development or construction as per the provisions of the Act or any other law.

47. Connection of Public Utilities to only Permitted Buildings. (Section 39 of the Act)

-Local bodies, organizations or agencies responsible for provision of public utilities like supply of drinking water, electricity, drainage, sewerage facility and rendering such other services to buildings, or installations in the Planning Area shall provide electricity and water connection or such other public services to only such buildings which have been permitted by the competent authority under law.

Provided that in the case of connection(s) to be given to unauthorized buildings, Government may prescribe the conditions under which the same could be done.

48. Plans to Stand Modified in Certain Cases. (Section 40 of the Act) -(1) Where any land situated in any Planning Area is required under a Development Plan or Zonal Development Plan to be kept as an open space or un-built upon or is made subject to compulsory acquisition in such a Plan and if at the expiration of two years from the date of operation of the plan or amendment of the Development Plan (making the land subject to compulsory acquisition), the land is not acquired or compulsorily acquired for the purpose of the Development Plan, the owner of the land may serve on the Government a notice requiring his interest in the land to be so acquired.

- (2) If the government fails to acquire the land within a period of a six months from the date of receipt of the notice under sub-section (1), the Development Plan or Zonal Development Plan, as the case may be, shall have effect after the expiration of the said six months, as if the land were not required to be kept as an open space or un-built upon or were not designated as subject to compulsory acquisition.

49. Penalty for Unauthorized Development or for Use in Non-Conformity with the Development Plan. (Section 41 of the Act) -(1) Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person or body commences, undertakes or carries out any development, or institutes or changes the use of any land or building.

- (a) in contravention of any Development Plan;
- (b) without necessary permission as required under this Act;
- (c) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted;
- (d) after the permission for development has been revoked under section-39; or
- (e) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section-39; shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with a fine which may extend to one lac rupees or with both and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

- (2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a Development Plan without having been allowed under section-33, section-34 and section-35 or where the continuance of such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may be extend to six months, or with a fine which may be extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both and in the case of continuing offence with a further fine which may be extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

50. Power to Require Removal of Unauthorized Development. (Section 42 of the Act)

-(1) Where any development of land has been or is being carried out as described in section-41, the Planning Authority shall serve on the owner a notice in Form-E requiring him for removal of un-authorized development, within such period, not exceeding one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice, to take such steps as may be specified in the notice, which, inter-alia, may order,

- (a) in cases specified in clauses (a), (b) or (d) of sub-section (1) of Section-41 to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;
- (b) in cases specified in clause (c) or (e) of sub-section (1) of Section-41 to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified;

(2) In particular, any such notice may, for the purpose aforesaid require-

- (a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works;
- (b) the carrying out on land, or any building of other operations; or
- (c) the discontinuance of any use of land and building;

Provided that in case the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land or building, the Planning Authority shall serve a notice on the Occupier also.

(3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may within the prescribed period -

- (a) apply for permission with respect to Section-31, Section-32 and Section-33 as the case may be for the retention of land or any buildings or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates; or

- (b) appeal to the Tribunal as may be prescribed.
- (4) (a) The notice shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal before the Tribunal.
- (b) (i) The provisions of Section-34 shall apply to such application with such modifications as may be necessary.
- (ii) If such permission as aforesaid is granted on that application, the notice shall not take effect, or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings or works or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall not take effect regarding such buildings or works or such part of the land, but shall have full effect regarding other buildings or works or other parts of the land.
- (5) The Tribunal may dismiss the appeal or accept the appeal by quashing or varying the notice as it may think fit.
- (6) If within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal or withdrawal of the application for permission or the appeal under Sub-Section (3) the notice or so much of it as continues to have effect, or the notice with variation made in appeal, is not complied with, the Planning Authority may-
 - (a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and in case where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice; and
 - (b) (i) in the case of a notice requiring the demolition or alteration of any building or works on any building to restore it to a condition before the development took place and secure the compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission as modified, take such steps as the Planning Authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations;
 - (ii) the Planning Authority may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it on performing its duties under sub-clause (i) above, from the owner as arrears of land revenue.
- (7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of Sub-Section (6) shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or with both and in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

51. Power to Stop Unauthorized Development and Requisition of Police. (Section 43 of the Act) - (1) Where any development of land or building as described in section-38 is being carried out but has not been completed, the Planning Authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development a notice in Form-E requiring the development of land or building to be discontinued from the time of the service of such notice.

- (2) Where such notice has been served, the provisions of Sub-Section (2) and Sub-Section (3) of Section-42 shall apply with such modification as may be necessary;

Provided that provisions of clause (a) of Sub-Section-(4) of Section-42 shall not apply and in spite of the filing of an application for permission for development or an appeal as provided in Sub-Section (3) of Section-42, the notice shall continue to have full effect.

- (3) Any person, who continues to carry out the development of land and building, whether for himself or on behalf of the owner or any other person, after such notice has been served, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day after the date of the service of the notice during which non-compliance has continued or continues.
- (4) If such notice is not complied forthwith, the Planning Authority or such officer of the Planning Authority, who may be authorized in this behalf, may require any police officer to remove such person and all assistants and workmen from the land at any time after the service of such notice and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.
- (5) After the requisition under Sub-Section (4) has been complied with, the Planning Authority or such officer of the Planning Authority who may be authorized in this behalf, may, if he thinks fit, depute, by a written order, a police officer or any officer or employee of the Appropriate Authority to watch the land or building in order to ensure that the development is not continued.
- (6) where a police officer or an officer or an employee of the Planning Authority has been deputed under Sub-Section (5) to watch the land or building the cost of such deputation shall be paid by the person at whose instance such development is being continued or to whom notice under Sub-Section (1) was given and shall be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue.

52. Power to Require Discontinuation of Use of Land and Removal or Alteration of Building. (Section 44 of the Act) -

(1) If it appears to the Planning Authority that it is expedient in the interest of proper planning in the Planning Area including the interests of provision of civic facilities, infrastructure and other amenities, having regard to the Development Plan prepared, or under preparation, or to be prepared, and to any other material consideration:

- (a) that any use of land should be discontinued; or
- (b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance thereof; or
- (c) that any building or works should be altered or removed; the Planning Authority may serve notice on the owner,
 - (i) to require the discontinuance of that use of land; or
 - (ii) to impose such conditions, as may be specified in the notice, on the continuance thereof; or
 - (iii) to require such steps, as may be specified in the notice in Form-E to be taken for the alteration or removal of any buildings or works, as the case may be, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice.

- (2) Any person aggrieved by such notice, may within the said period and in the manner prescribed in Form (F), appeal to the Tribunal;
- (3) If an appeal is filed under Sub-Section (2), the provisions of clause (a) of Sub-Section (4) of section-42 and Sub-Section (5) of Section-42 shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary.
- (4) If any person-
 - (a) who has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice, by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land; or
 - (b) who has carried out any works in compliance with the notice, or incompliance with the notice in Form-E, the land becomes incapable of reasonably beneficial use.claims, from the Planning Authority, compensation in respect of that damage, or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice, the Planning Authority shall designate an officer to hear the applicant and make a report to the authority. The Planning Authority shall, after consideration of the aforesaid report, assess the compensation and offer it to the applicant under the provisions of this Act and Rules made thereon.
- (5) If the owner does not accept the compensation and within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the order from the Planning Authority shall give a notice of his refusal to accept the compensation, the Planning Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication to the Tribunal constituted under Chapter-XII or to the Board of Revenue as prescribed in the Rules under the Act and the decision of the Tribunal or the Board of Revenue shall be final and binding on the owner and the Planning Authority.

53. Interim Provision Pending Preparation of Development Plan. (Section 45 of the Act) -Where the Planning Authority, in the exercise of its functions and powers with respect to any area under it, is required to have regard to the provisions of a Development Plan before such Development Plan has become operative, the Planning Authority shall have regard to the provisions of the Development Plan for securing the proper planning of the concerned area.

CHAPTER-VII

AREA DEVELOPMENT SCHEME

54. Preparation of Area Development Scheme. (Section 46 of the Act) -Subject to the provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Planning Authority may, not later than six months after the Development Plan/s has been approved by the Government, invite Area Development Scheme(s) for the purpose of implementing the proposals contained in the Development Plan from eligible developers for the area or areas within its jurisdiction or any part thereof.

- (p) the suspension, so far as may be necessary, for the proper carrying out of the scheme, of any rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any Act which the State Legislature is competent to amend;
- (q) acquisition by purchase, exchange or otherwise of any property necessary for or effected by the execution of the scheme;
- (r) the reservation of land for development of infrastructure, parks, common amenities, parking etc, shall be made from the total area covered under the scheme, as follows:-
 - (i) not less than 15percent for roads;
 - (ii) not less than five percent for parks, playgrounds, garden and open spaces;
 - (iii) not less than five percent for social infrastructure and public utility places; provided that percentage of the allotment of land specified in paragraph (i) to (iii) may be altered by the government depending upon the nature of development and for the reasons to be recorded in writing.

The above calculation for reservation of land will not include Government lands, Public Lands and lands which is not a part of the schedule of land mentioned in rule 55 (2) (b).

- (s) such other matters not inconsistent with the objects of this Act, as may be directed by the Government or as may be prescribed by the Rules.

57. Land Owner to be a Permanent Stakeholder in the Area Development Scheme.

(Section 49 of the Act) - In an Area Development Scheme, referred in Section-47, while reconstituting the plot(s), the developer shall ensure that every land owner shall get back at least 10 percent of his land area in the scheme, as may be shown in reconstitution and allotment statement in Form-H. Such lands cannot be transferred in any form or sold by the owners within a period of ten years from the date of such allotment.

58. Approval of the Area Development Scheme. (Section 50 of the Act) - (1) The Area Development Scheme that may be prepared under the Act shall give due regards to the proposals of the Development Plans and Development Control Regulations.

- (2) The Area Development Scheme that may be prepared shall be published in the official Gazette by Notification as well as by public notice in the at least two local news papers for inviting objections from the owners of the land and all such interested persons who have filed objections and who have made request for being so heard be given an opportunity to represent in person with relevant documents and evidence within a period of two months. The Planning Authority shall take suitable decisions on the objections received and direct the developer to make necessary amendments.
- (3) The Planning Authority shall examine such a scheme and approve the same with or without modifications within a period of one month.
- (4) The Area Development Scheme shall contain the following particulars namely;
 - (i) The area, ownership and tenure of each plot.
 - (ii) The particulars of the land allotted or reserved with a general indication of the use to which such land is to be put and the terms and conditions subject to which such land is to be put to such uses.
 - (iii) The extent to which it is proposed to alter the boundaries of each plot.
 - (iv) An estimate of the net cost of the scheme to be borne
 - (v) Full description of all details of the scheme
 - (vi) Full description of water supply lines, drainage, sewerage, electricity and other utility networks.
 - (vii) Details of route in and around the plot for movement of fire brigade, ambulance and other disaster management equipment and their place of parking in case of an eventuality.
 - (viii) The laying out or relaying out of the land either vacant or already built upon
 - (ix) Details of water harvesting scheme

- (x) The filling up of reclamation of low lying, swampy or unhealthy areas or leveling up of land; and
 - (xi) Any other particulars as may be required
- (5) The Planning Authority after carrying out all necessary procedure required under the Act and as prescribed under these Rules shall submit Area Development Scheme as approved under Section 50 (Approval of Area Development Scheme) of the Act to the Board along with copies of its decisions and copies of the decisions in the appeal, within a period of one month from the date of the receipt of the decision of the Tribunal.
- 59. Power of the Government to require the Planning Authority to make Area Development Scheme. (Section 51 of the Act) -(1) The Government may, in respect of any Planning Area after making such enquiry as it deems necessary, direct the concerned Planning Authority to make and publish in the manner prescribed in these Rules, an Area Development Scheme in respect of any land in regard to which a development scheme may be made.
- (2) If the Planning Authority fails to make the Area Development Scheme within three months from the date of direction made under Sub-Section (1), the Government may direct the Town and Country Planning Organization (TCPO) to make and publish and submit the Area Development Scheme to the Government, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall, as far as may be applicable, apply to the making of such Area Development Scheme.
- 60. Power of Government to suspend Rules, Bye-laws or Regulations. (Section 52 of the Act) -(1) Where the Planning Authority has approved the Area Development Scheme through order published in Official Gazette under Section 50, the Government may, on an application by the Planning Authority, suspend by order published in the official Gazette to such extent only as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out of the Area Development Scheme, any rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any law which the Legislature of the State is competent to amend.
- (2) Any order issued under sub-section (1) shall cease to operate in the event of the Area Development Scheme being withdrawn by the Planning Authority either on its own or under the directions of the Government.
- 61. Appeal against Matters Determined by the Authority. (Section 53 of the Act) - From every decision of the Planning Authority in matters arising out of aforesaid provisions, an appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the decision, to the Tribunal constituted under this Act.
- 62. Exclusion or Limitation of Compensation in Certain Cases. (Section 54 of the Act)-(1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right of any sort which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision(s) contained in the Area Development Scheme, if under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such Area Development Scheme is made, no compensation is payable for such injurious affection.
- (2) Any property or a private right of any sort shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision contained in an Area Development Scheme securing the amenity of the area included in such Area Development Scheme or any part thereof or imposing any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (m) of sub-section (2) of Section 48.

63. Decision of Planning Authority to be Final in Certain Matters. (Section 55 of the Act)- (1) Where no appeal has been made under Section 53, the decision of the Planning Authority shall be final and binding on the parties.

(2) Where an appeal has been made under Section 53 and a copy of the decision in appeal is received by the Planning Authority, it shall then, where necessary, make variation in the Area Development Scheme in accordance with such decision and may also rectify such error(s) or omission(s), if any, as may have been brought to its notice after publication of the Area Development Scheme and shall also forward such Area Development Scheme together with copies of its decisions and copies of the decisions in appeal to the Board.

64. Power to Vary Scheme on Ground of Error, Irregularity or Informality. (i) The Planning Authority shall by a notification in the official Gazette prepare and publish a Draft of such variation for which public notice may be advertised in at least two local news papers.

(ii) The Draft variation that may be published as above shall give every amendment proposed to be made in the Area Development Scheme and such other particulars as may be required in making these variations.

(2) The draft variation published under Sub-Section (1) shall state every amendment proposed to be made in the Area Development Scheme, and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the sub-clauses of sub-section (2) of Section 48, the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning Authority during office hours for one month.

(4) Not later than one month from the date of the publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objections to the Planning Authority.

(5) After receiving the objections under sub-section (4) the Planning Authority shall after making such enquiry as it may think fit, notify the variation with or without modification by notification in the Official Gazette.

(6) From the date of the notification of the variation, with or without modifications, such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the Area Development Scheme.

65. Power to Vary Area Development Scheme. (Section 57 of the Act) -Any Area Development Scheme may at any time be varied by a subsequent Area Development Scheme made, and published in accordance with this Act :

Provided that, when an Area Development Scheme is so varied, the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to such variation and making of subsequent Area Development Scheme; and the date of publication of the varied Area Development Scheme shall be deemed to be the date of publication of the Area Development Scheme referred in the relevant Sections.

66. Execution of Works in the Area Development Scheme by Developer. (Section 58 of the Act) -(1) All works proposed in the Area Development Scheme as approved by Planning Authority shall be completed by the Developer within the period specified in the approval of the Scheme ;
- (2) If the Developer fails to complete the work within the specified period or within the period extended under sub-section (1), the Planning Authority shall require the Developer to complete the works within a further period as it may consider reasonable or appoint other agency/agencies to complete such works at the cost of the Developer and may impose such penalties on the Developer as prescribed in the Development Control Regulations.

CHAPTER-VIII

LEVY, ASSESSMENT AND RECOVERY OF DEVELOPMENT CHARGE

67. Development Charge. (Section 59 of the Act) -(1) Where permission for use or change of use or development of any land or building is granted under Chapter-VI of the Act in the whole or any part of the Planning Area, and such change is capable of yielding a better income to the owner, the Appropriate Authority may levy a development charge.
- (a) The different rates of development charges may be specified for different parts of the development area and for different uses such as :-
- (i) Industrial ;
 - (ii) Commercial;
 - (iii) Residential; &
 - (iv) Miscellaneous.
- (b) In classifying the land or buildings under any of the purposes mentioned in clause (a), the predominant purpose for which such lands and buildings are used shall be the main basis.
- (2) The rates of development charges shall be determined –
- (a) In case of land, at a rate to be specified per Hectare, and
 - (b) In case of a building, at a rate to be specified per Square Meter of the floor area of the building :

Provided further that where land appurtenant to a building is used for any purpose independent of the building, development charge may be levied separately for such use also.

68. Levy of Development Charge. (Section 60 of the Act) -(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act a Planning Authority including a Local Authority where such Local Authority is the Planning Authority shall levy development charges, with the prior approval of the Government, by notification, on the institution of use or change of use of land or building or development of any land or building for which permission is required under this Act within the Planning Area, at such rate which will be specified in the said notification;

- (i) The notification regarding levy of development charge shall be published by the appropriate authority in Official Gazette as well as in one or more local newspapers circulating within the area of the Appropriate Authority. Notice giving the extract of the Notification showing the rate of development charge for different area and for different uses as approved by the State Government shall be affixed on the Notice Board of the Appropriate Authority along with a Plan of the area showing boundaries of different areas and uses for which different development charge may have been approved by the State Government.
- (ii) Before submitting a proposal to the State Government for giving sanction to the levy of development charge in the area, the Appropriate Authority shall prepare a draft proposal giving rates of development charge for different area and for different use and publish the draft proposal in the Official Gazette by notification as well as by an advertisement in one or more local newspapers circulating in the area of the Appropriate Authority inviting general public to give their suggestions and objections on the draft proposal, within 3 months from the date of publication of draft proposal in the Official Gazette.
- (iii) The notice regarding draft proposal to levy development charge shall also be affixed on the notice board of the Appropriate Authority, the official website and at prominent places in the area of the Appropriate Authority.
- (iv) The draft proposal to levy the development charge shall show the grounds and reasons for working out the various rates of development charge for different areas and uses.
- (v) After considering the suggestions and objections that may be received on publication of the draft proposal under sub-rule (ii) on merits and after giving individual hearing to all where any application is made in this regards, the Appropriate Authority shall submit the proposal to levy development charge to the State Government for sanction.
- (vi) The proposal shall be submitted to the State Government for sanction along with all suggestions and objection applications that may have been received by the Appropriate Authority and the minutes of the personal hearing that may have been conducted at the request of any individual. While applying for the State Government sanction to the levy of development charge, the Appropriate Authority shall substantiate the proposal with statements, plans estimates, development works likely to be undertaken in the area etc.

Provided that rates of development charge may be different for the different parts of the Planning Area and for different uses.

- (2) The Government may provide for exemption from the levy of development charge on any development, or institution of change, or change of any use of any land and building. The Government may issue notification from time to time for giving exemption from the levy of development charge on any development or institutions as it may think proper.

- (3) (a) The development charge on lands and buildings levied shall be assessed with reference to their use and location for different purposes.
- (b) The rate of development charge shall be fixed by the Government by notification.

69. Assessment of Development Charge. (Section 61 of the Act) -(1) Any person who intends to carry out any development or institute or change any use of any land or building for which permission is required under this Act, whether he has applied for such permission or not, or any person who has commenced the carrying out of any such development or has carried out such development or instituted or changed any such use, shall apply to the Appropriate Authority within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the development control regulations of the development plan for the assessment of development charge payable in respect thereof.

- (2) On an application being made under Sub-Section (1), or if no such application is made, after serving a notice in writing on the person liable to make such payment, the Planning Authority shall, after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard, and after calling for a report in this behalf from an officer of the authority, determine whether or not, and if so, what development charge is levied in respect of that land or building as a result of the carrying out of such development or institution of use, or change of use, the amount payable, and fix a date by which the payment shall be made.
- (3) The Planning Authority shall, give a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person who has made an application under Sub-Section (1) or who has been served with a notice under Sub-Section (2);
- (4) After hearing the persons, the Planning Authority shall assess the amount of development charge by an order:

Provided that :-

- (a) where the application relates to the carrying out of any development, the Planning Authority may refuse to assess the development charge payable in respect thereof, unless it is satisfied that the applicant has an interest in the land sufficient to enable him to carry out such development, or that the applicant is able to obtain such interest and that the applicant will carry out the development within such period as the Planning Authority considers appropriate;
 - (b) where the application relates to use or change of use, the Planning Authority may refuse to assess the amount of development charge in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the use will be instituted within such period as the Planning Authority considers appropriate.
- (5) On the determination of the development charge levied under Sub-Section (2), the Planning Authority shall give to the person liable to pay such charge a notice in writing of the amount of development charge payable by such person and the date by which such payment shall be made and such notice shall also state that in the event of failure to make such payment on or before such date interest at the rate as prevailing on the relevant date as may be decided by the Authority, shall be payable from such date on the amount remaining unpaid.

- (6) (a) The development charge payable in respect of any land or building shall be a first charge on such land or building, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon and any other sum due to the Planning Authority.
- (b) All development charges payable in respect of any land or building by any person shall, together with interest due up to the date of realization, be recoverable from such person or successor-in-interest in such land or building as arrears of land revenue.
- (7) An order of assessment of development charge shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Civil Court.

70. Levy of Infrastructure and Amenities Charges. (Section 62 of the Act) -(1) Every Local Authority or the Planning Authority, as the case may be, while according a building permit under the relevant laws, shall levy charges so as to meet the impact of development and for providing adequate infrastructure and basic amenities at the rates as determined and in accordance with such procedure as may be specified in the development control regulations of the development plan which shall not be less than minimum and not more than the maximum as decided by the Authority from time to time for different parts of the Planning Area and for different uses of a building.

- (2) The infrastructure and amenities charges shall be levied on any person who undertakes or carries out any such development or institutes any use or changes any such use of a building.
- (3) The collection of the infrastructure and amenities charges as decided by the Authority, shall be made within a period that may be specified in the demand notice issued by the Authority.

71. Appeal. (Section 63 of the Act) -(1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the Planning Authority may, within a period of two (2) months from the date on which the order was communicated to him, shall make an appeal to the Tribunal against such order in the manner prescribed, in the Civil Procedure Code affixing thereon Court Fee Stamp of required amount ;

Provided that the Tribunal may admit an appeal preferred after the expiration of the said period if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the said period.

- (2) The appeal shall be made and verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by the Planning Authority.
- (3) In disposing of an appeal, the Tribunal may, after giving the appellant an opportunity of making his representation and also hearing the Planning Authority whose order is appealed against,-
 - (a) confirm, reduce, enhance, or annul such assessment; or
 - (b) set aside such assessment and direct the authority to make a fresh assessment after such further inquiry as may be directed; or
 - (c) pass such other order as it may think fit.
- (4) The decision of the Tribunal shall be binding on all the parties to such appeal.

- (5) Notwithstanding that an appeal has been preferred under Sub-Section (1), the payment of development charges in accordance with the order or decision of assessment against which the appeal has been preferred shall not be stayed.

Provided that the Tribunal may, in its discretion, give such directions as it thinks fit in regard to the payment of the development charges before the disposal of the appeal if the appellant furnishes sufficient security to its satisfaction for such payment in such form and in such manner as may be acceptable to the Authority.

- (6) Any order passed by the Tribunal under the provisions of this Rule shall be enforced by such authority as per the Revenue Procedure.
